Web-based and eClassroom final exams are given July 30 to August 1, 2019. Such exams are proctored at GHC campus testing centers or by means determined by the instructor of the course. Two weeks prior to the testing dates, students in Web-based and eClassroom courses should consult with their instructors to find out whether they must register for a proctored final exam. Testing dates and registration information for proctored exams can be found at eLearning Course Exams page.
