

Sabor a Mi
(My Essence)

We enjoyed this love for so long
Our souls got so close that now
I carry your essence with me
But you also
Carry mine

If you were to deny my presence in your life
Embracing you and talking to you would be enough
I gave you so much life
That unavoidably you now carry
My essence

I don't intend to own you
I'm no one, I don't possess any vanity
I give the best of my life
I'm poor, so what else could I give?

More than a thousand years will pass, many more
I don't know if love exists in the eternity
But there, just like here
In your lips you will carry
My essence
